with gender perspective integrated (excerpt)

Goal: Performance based budgeting is a tool to make efficient management decisions and use public funds in an efficient way. Integration of the gender responsive approach into the budget process shall ensure improvement of efficiency and quality of provided public services with account of social groups' needs, including in terms of gender, and shall allow for stronger accountability of spending units and budget transparency.

Gender Budgeting work need understanding of gender inequalities – change in norms and “working culture”

How to overcome:

- Pilot work with own material
- Working groups in regular administration
- Visibility of reform work
- Cooperation CSO and other stakeholders
- Parliament

- Challenge other PFM projects/reforms

Цей фільм розповість вам –
що таке гендерно-орієнтоване

Цей фільм розповість вам, що таке гендерно-орієнтоване бюджетування,

To explain the difference between gender responsive and conventional budgeting, the Project created a short training movie. Specialists of the Ministry of Finance, the Ministry of Youth and Sports, KCSA, and GRB experts use living examples to demonstrate how they implement GRB in Ukrainian reality and what it gives to people.

PFM System Reform Strategy (2017-2021)

with gender perspective integrated (excerpt)

Optimization of budget programs and reinforcement of linkages with strategic goals

- ▼ The system of performance indicators shall continue to be improved for clear presentation of the level of achievement of strategic goals and benefits for public service recipients, including through implementation of the gender responsive approach.

with gender perspective integrated (excerpt)

Interbudget relations and fiscal decentralization

- ▼ Goal: Building a capable, efficient, transparent and accountable system of local finance management aimed at achieving goals of sustainable economic and social development.

This process shall encourage local governments to strengthen their own fiscal base and adopt advanced financial management methods, including in terms of application of gender responsive approach elements.
