Statement by IMF Resident Representative for Bosnia and Herzegovina

Francisco Parodi, the International Monetary Fund (IMF) Resident Representative in Bosnia and Herzegovina, issued the following statement in Washington D.C. today:

"IMF Management and Staff held productive discussions with the BiH delegation during the IMF-World Bank Spring Meetings that were held on April 15-17 in Washington. Both sides underscored their commitment to reach agreement on an ambitious economic reform program that would form the basis for an IMF supported program. To this end, an IMF staff mission will visit BiH in May to continue discussions on a set of fiscal, financial and structural reforms. The final approval of an arrangement supported by the IMF is granted by its Executive Board."

Danas je u Washington D.C. Francisco Parodi, rezidentni predstavnik Međunarodnog monetarnog fonda u Bosni i Hercegovini dao sljedeću izjavu:

“U okviru proljetnih sastanaka MMF-a i Svjetske banke koji su održani od 15. – 17. aprila/travnja u Washingtonu, Menadžment i osoblje MMF-a su vodili produktivne razgovore sa delegacijom Bosne i Hercegovine. Obje strane su naglasile svoju opredjeljenost u pogledu postizanja dogovora o ambicioznom programu ekonomskih reformi koji će činiti osnovu programa sa MMF-om. S tim u vezi, misija MMF-a će posjetiti Bosnu i Hercegovinu u maju/svibnju kako bi nastavila razgovore o setu fiskalnih, finansijskih i strukturalnih reformi. Konačno odobravanje aranžmana koji će podržati MMF-a daje Izvršni odbor.”
