

JAPAN-IMF SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM FOR ASIA PARTNERSHIP TRACK ONLY

Please read the JISPA e-brochure, including the General Information and Application Guidelines sections, before starting the on-line application.

Please also note the following:

- Any changes in the status of the applicant or information provided in the submitted application material must be communicated immediately to the IMF Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific (OAP) at jispa@imf.org.
- No changes, even due to typing mistakes, can be made after submission. If you make a mistake, you are requested to re-submit with another email address and to inform OAP at jispa@imf.org of the new Reference number.
- Any false or misleading statements, inaccuracies, or plagiarism in the submitted application material may be grounds for denial of admission into the university, revocation of the scholarship, and/or dismissal from the university.
- Incomplete application forms or applications missing required documents will not be processed. Please note that submitted documents will not be returned, and application materials are not held over to the following year, in the event that an applicant seeks to reapply for a scholarship.
- When taking an English proficiency examination (TOEFL or IELTS), applicants are requested/required to register with the institution code of the JISPA.¹
 - TOEFL: “C626 – Japan-IMF Scholarship Program for Asia”
 - IELTS: “JISPA: Japan-IMF Scholarship Program for Asia”
- If the applicant decides to withdraw the application for the JISPA during the selection process, the applicant must immediately notify OAP at jispa@imf.org.
- Applicants who are selected for the JISPA will be requested to send the original documents of their application materials to OAP, together with other requested forms, by a date to be designated after they have been accepted to the program.

¹ An English test allowance is provided only to the partnership-track scholars (1) who registered the JISPA institution code in TOEFL or IELTS; and (2) who were admitted to and enrolled in the partnership-track universities, in lieu of receipt.
