Please read the JISPA e-brochure, including the General Information and Application Guidelines sections, before filling out the application form.

Please also note the following:

- Any change in the status of the applicant or information provided in the submitted application material must be communicated immediately to the IMF Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific (OAP) at jispa@imf.org.

- Any false or misleading statements, inaccuracies, or plagiarism in the submitted application materials may be grounds for denial of admission into the university, revocation of the scholarship, and/or dismissal from the university.

- Incomplete application forms or applications missing required documents will not be processed. Please note that submitted documents will not be returned, and application materials are not held over to the following year, in the event an applicant seeks to reapply for a scholarship.

- When taking an English proficiency examination (TOEFL or IELTS), applicants are requested/required to register with the institution code of the JISPA.

  TOEFL:  “C626 – Japan-IMF Scholarship Program for Asia”
  IELTS:  “JISPA: Japan-IMF Scholarship Program for Asia”

- If the applicant decides to withdraw the application for the JISPA during the selection process, the applicant must immediately notify OAP at jispa@imf.org.

- Applicants who are selected for the JISPA will be requested to send the original documents of their application materials to OAP, together with other requested forms, by a date to be designated after they have been accepted to the program.
