

JAPAN-IMF SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM FOR ASIA MASTER'S TRACK ONLY

Please read the *JISPA e-brochure*<sup>1</sup>, including the Scholarship Conduct Policies, as well as the *Application Guidelines* sections, before starting the on-line application.

Please also note the following:

- Any changes in the status of the applicant or information provided in the submitted application material must be communicated immediately to the IMF Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific (OAP) at jispa@imf.org.
- No changes, even due to typing mistakes, can be made after submission. If you make a mistake, you are requested to re-submit with another email address and inform OAP at jispa@imf.org of the new Reference number.
- Any false or misleading statements, inaccuracies, or plagiarism in the submitted application material may be grounds for denial of admission into the university, revocation of the scholarship, and/or dismissal from the university.
- Incomplete application forms or applications missing required documents will not be processed. Please note that submitted documents will not be returned, and application materials are not held over to the following year, in the event that an applicant seeks to reapply for a scholarship.
- If selected, applicants must submit original copies of their application materials requested by the university of enrollment for their admission process. Failure to do so will result in the revocation of the university's admission and cancellation of the scholarship offer.
- When taking an English proficiency examination (TOEFL or IELTS), applicants are requested/required to register with the institution code of the JISPA.<sup>2</sup>
TOEFL: "C626 – Japan-IMF Scholarship Program for Asia"
IELTS: "JISPA: Japan-IMF Scholarship Program for Asia"
- If the applicant decides to withdraw the application for the JISPA during the selection process, the applicant must immediately notify OAP at jispa@imf.org.

<sup>2</sup> An English test allowance is provided only to the master's scholars (1) who registered the JISPA institution code in TOEFL or IELTS; and (2) who were admitted to and enrolled in the partner universities, in lieu of receipt.

DECLARATION

1. I certify that the information I have written on the application form and the documents I have submitted to be true and accurate.
2. I understand and agree that any false or misleading information, including plagiarism, will lead to the disqualification from the JISPA selection process and/or will justify a denial of admission into the university, revocation of the scholarship, and/or dismissal from the university.
3. I understand and agree that my candidacy and/or acceptance to the JISPA will be nullified if I fail to submit the originals of the application materials via post to the university prior to the designated date after I have been selected for the program.
4. I certify that I have carefully read the JISPA e-brochure, including the scholarship conduct policies, and the Application Guidelines and I understand all requirements and restrictions for the scholarship.
5. If selected, I will return to my employing agency upon completion of the JISPA to utilize the knowledge and skills acquired through the scholarship program as specified in the scholarship conduct policies.
6. I authorize the IMF to collect from and release to the universities and the Government of Japan my personal information (including application information and academic records) for the purpose of selection and monitoring under the scholarship program.
