

IMF presentations at the Finance and Economics Institute of Tajikistan Russian Tajik Slavonic University and Tajik Technical University of Tajikistan

The Resident Representative Office in Tajikistan continues to build upon its outreach activities with academia and university students. The month of May, marked series of presentations delivered at prominent universities of the country. Mr. Aidyn Bibolov, the Resident Representative of IMF in Tajikistan, held outreach presentations to the students and faculty members of the Finance and Economic Institute under the Ministry of Finance, Russian-Tajik Slavonic University, and Technical University of Tajikistan.

The topics covered included mandate of the Fund, the current economic situation in the CCA region and Tajikistan, as well as some economic terms widely used. The presentations generated large interest and were very well received by the students and the faculty. There were many questions asked and answered; students of the RTSU also shared their self-made 10-minutes video in which they analyze the current economic situation in the region and Tajikistan.

The faculty members and students were grateful for having the opportunity to understand better the work of the IMF and its role in assisting countries. The participants received copies of IMF magazines and publications.

