

REGISTRY’S SUMMARY¹: F. Várdy et al., Applicants, and D. Ali et al., Intervenors v. International Monetary Fund, Respondent (Withdrawal from Applications for Intervention), IMFAT Order No. 2026-3 (September 14, 2026)

APPLICATIONS FOR INTERVENTION – WITHDRAWAL OF INTERVENORS – ANONYMITY

In Order No. 2026-3, the Administrative Tribunal of the International Monetary Fund considered the withdrawals notified by certain Intervenors following the Tribunal’s decision in Order No. 2026-2 concerning the admissibility of three Joint Applications for Intervention filed in connection with Applications challenging elements of the 2025 Review of Staff Compensation.

In Order No. 2026-2, the Tribunal had admitted the Joint Application for Intervention filed by employees under open-ended appointments and the Joint Application for Intervention filed by employees under fixed-term appointments,² denied the Joint Application for Intervention filed by contractual employees, and denied all requests for anonymity. The Tribunal had also afforded admitted Intervenors an opportunity to withdraw from the proceedings by September 1, 2026, if they wished to do so in light of the denial of the requests for anonymity.

On August 31, 2026, counsel for the Intervenors informed the Tribunal that eighteen Intervenors wished to withdraw. Fourteen withdrawals were notified in connection with the Joint Application for Intervention filed by employees under open-ended appointments, and four withdrawals were notified in connection with the Joint Application for Intervention filed by employees under fixed-term appointments.

Having noted that the issue of withdrawal was moot with respect to five Intervenors whose applications for intervention had already been held inadmissible in Order No. 2026-2, the Tribunal found that the other thirteen Intervenors had notified their withdrawals in accordance with the procedure set forth in Order No. 2026-2. Accordingly, the Tribunal decided to record that these thirteen Intervenors had withdrawn from the relevant Joint Applications for Intervention and that the proceedings before the Tribunal were terminated with respect to these Intervenors. The names of both the Intervenors whose application for intervention was held inadmissible in Order No. 2026-2 and the Intervenors who were held to have withdrawn in accordance with the procedure set forth in Order No. 2026-2 were redacted in Order No. 2026-3 in order to maintain their anonymity, as required under Order No. 2026-2.

² Both Joint Applications for Intervention were held to be admissible except with respect to the employees whose application for intervention was identified as “inadmissible” in Annexes 1 and 2 to Order No. 2026-2.
