

SHIRAKAWA Shunsuke

Vice Commissioner for Strategy Development and Management

Financial Services Agency, Government of Japan

Mr. Shunsuke Shirakawa is Vice Commissioner for Strategy Development and Management at Japan's Financial Services Agency (JFSA). In particular, he is responsible for personnel matters, external relations and IT strategy.

In the international space, He has been engaged with the Financial Stability Board (FSB) and still holds the capacity as Co-chair of the Working Group on Non-Bank Financial Intermediation. He was a member of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS), representing the agency from 2015 to 2019.

Mr. Shirakawa joined the Ministry of Finance of Japan in 1986, and has held various positions at the JFSA, including, Vice Commissioner for International Affairs, Deputy-Director General of the Planning and Coordination Bureau (Policy Coordination); Director of the Evaluation Division, Inspection Bureau; Director of the Insurance Business Division, Supervisory Bureau; Director of the Office of International Affairs; and Private Secretary to Minister for Financial Services. He holds an LLB degree from the University of Tokyo (1986) and an MPA degree from the Columbia University (1990).