Despite strong domestic demand, the region’s dependence on commodities underscores continued vulnerability to terms-of-trade shocks. Foreign direct investment is still targeted mainly toward primary sectors, especially oil.

Sources: UNCTAD World Investment Report; and IMF staff estimates.

Angola, Republic of Congo, Equatorial Guinea, Gabon, and Nigeria.