

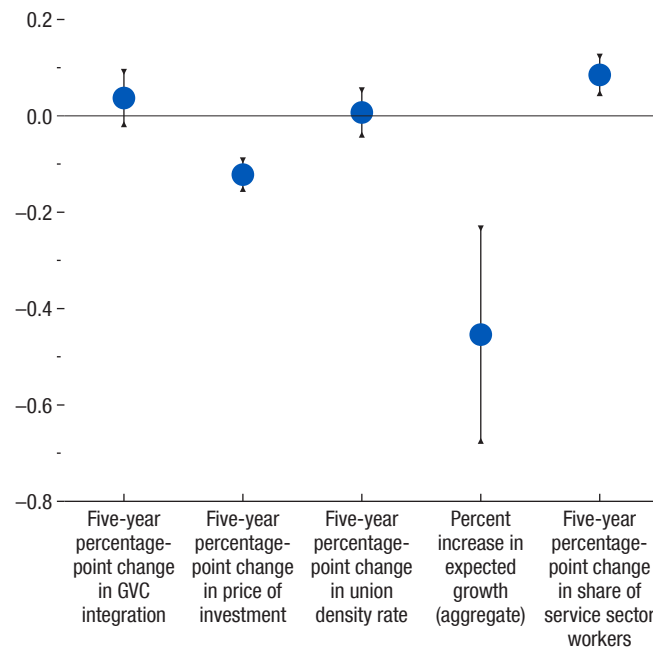

Figure 2.16. Effects on Involuntary Part-Time Employment Share, Aggregate Analysis
(Percentage points)

Larger declines in the relative price of investment, lower expected growth, and a higher share of service workers are associated with a higher share of involuntary part-time employment.

Source: IMF staff calculations.

Note: Markers show estimated coefficients, and lines display 90 percent confidence intervals. Figure is based on columns (2) to (6) of Annex Table 2.3.10. GVC = global value chain.