

Order No. 1999-2, Mootness of Application (August 12, 1999)

The Administrative Tribunal of the International Monetary Fund,

Considering that Mr. AP≅ filed an Application with the Administrative Tribunal, dated November 20, 1998, in which he challenged the decision of the Administration Committee of the Staff Retirement Plan to withhold part of his monthly pension payments pending the resolution of a dispute relating to a domestic relations matter; and Considering further that the Tribunal has been informed that on March 19, 1999 the Administration Committee reversed its decision to withhold part of his monthly pension payments, and also decided to pay Mr. AP≅ all amounts withheld, plus interest;

Considering therefore that Mr. AP≅=s position has been satisfied;

The Administrative Tribunal decides to treat the Application as moot.
