PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2003-Present: International Monetary Fund, Washington, DC.

Strategy, Policy and Review Dept. (2020-Present):

Debt Policy Division: Deputy Division Chief

Part of the management of a large division at the heart of the IMF's lending. Cleared debt policy reviews for a number of countries, including intensive program and debt restructuring cases. Led and coordinated teams working on analytical projects and reviews of IMF policies, collaborating extensively with other departments.

Research Dept. (2018-2020):

Systemic Issues Division: Acting Division Chief.

Played a key role in shaping policy views regarding foreign exchange intervention and capital flow management. Co-led the large interdepartmental project on the Integrated Policy Framework for jointly considering monetary policy, foreign exchange intervention, macroprudential policies and capital flow management.

Western Hemisphere Dept. (2015-2018):

Caribbean II/III Division: Deputy Division Chief and Mission Chief for Guyana.

Co-authored Chapter 1 of the April 2016 Regional Economic Outlook, led and contributed to regional research projects on Latin America and on the Caribbean, and organized high-level events.

Research Dept. (2003-04; 2005-2015):

Systemic Issues Division: Economist: 2003-2004; 2005-2010;

Sr. Economist: 2010- 2012; Deputy Division Chief: 2012-2015.

Helped develop key parts of the IMF Vulnerability Exercise and Early Warning Exercise. Conducted policy-oriented research on a wide-range of topics, including sovereign debt restructuring, currency mismatches, indexation of debt to GDP, the international financial architecture, international trade and economic development, consumption and savings in China, post-reform and trade liberalization growth in Latin America, distributional implications of exchange rate movements, the emerging market's policy responses to the Global Financial Crisis, the design of capital controls and macro prudential policies, and monetary policy and foreign exchange intervention in emerging markets. Drafted policy notes and published research papers on this wide range of topics.

Participated on IMF missions to China and Mexico, and taught courses on assessing vulnerabilities to IMF staff and country officials.

Asia and Pacific Dept. (2004-2005):

Participated in missions to Hong Kong SAR and Samoa.

Fall 2007: Visiting Assistant Professor, Pontificia Universidade Católica do Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Taught graduate-level courses on macroeconomics and international finance.
