The following is the provisional agenda for the Nineteenth Meeting of the International Monetary and Financial Committee, which is to be convened on Saturday, April 25, 2009, at the Fund’s Headquarters in Washington, D.C. The informal ministerial-level dialogue will start at 8:00 a.m. in HQ1 – Meeting Hall A. It will focus on managing macro-financial risks, including a pilot Early Warning Exercise.

10:15 a.m.  Plenary Session (HQ2 – Conference Hall 1)

1. Adoption of Agenda

3. The IMF’s Crisis Response and Reform Agenda

4. Other Business

1:15 p.m.  Working Lunch of IMFC Members (HQ2 – Conference Hall 2)

Topic: Mobilizing Resources for the Fund (including bilateral loans, notes, NAB, concessional resources, and next quota review)

Approval of Press Communiqué

---

1 Background documents to shape the discussion of these topics will be provided.