WHAT IS THE GLOBAL PARTNERSHIP?

GLOBAL PARTNERSHIP
FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT DATA

An open, independent, multi-stakeholder network of 180+ data champions, including major stakeholders as well as unusual suspects

Members represent the full range of data producers, organizers and users who are critical to harnessing the data revolution for sustainable development

The Partnership's objective is for all stakeholders in every country to have the right data at the right time to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals

What we do

TECHNICAL AND POLITICAL

Zoom in: Technical issues increasingly being solved – and infrastructure for solving them is emerging

Zoom out: Political barriers to progress – ownership, control, rights, resources
