1/ The status and classification of countries are as of January 31, 2015. There are currently no countries for which mandatory financial stability assessments have been delayed by more than 18 months.
2/ Excluding three-month grace period, where applicable, for member countries without a Fund arrangement or PSI.
3/ Reasons for delay are explained in the Note below.
4/ The delay measures the lag between the stipulated date of completion of the next Article IV consultation plus the three-month grace period, where applicable. If the stipulated date for completion of the consultation falls in the first half of a given month, the calculation of the delay includes this month.
Note: Taxonomy of the Reasons for Delays of Article IV Consultations

Article IV consultations are delayed for a variety of reasons. For the purpose of monitoring delays, Fund staff groups the reasons into the following categories. It should be recognized, however, that a delay may have more than one reason.

- Program-related issues: Delayed (i) in order to combine the consultation with a request for use of Fund resources (UFR) or Policy Support Instrument ( PSI), or program review; or (ii) due to ongoing discussions on UFR or PSI, or continued work on program review.

- Further discussions: Delayed due to further discussions with the authorities on economic developments and policies.

- Political/security situation: Delayed due to the unsettled political and/or security situation.

- Government change: Delayed due to forthcoming or recent elections, change of government, or changes within government.

- Staffing constraints.

- Authorities’ request: Delayed at the request of the authorities due to, for example, their inability to host the mission as a result of their work schedule.

- No agreement on mission dates/modalities: There was no agreement on the modalities for the mission/the authorities have not communicated dates for the Article IV consultation mission.

- Miscellaneous: Includes reasons not accommodated above.
