

Lecture at the Tajik State National University

On May 27, 2014, Mr. Aidyn Bibolov, IMF Resident Representative in Tajikistan, delivered a presentation for the students of the Economic faculty of the Tajik State National University (TGNU). It was the second presentation held within the framework of IMF Office in Tajikistan's initiative to broaden its outreach to its various stakeholders.

The presentation was attended by the students of international relations, economic and banking faculties. Ms. Malika Saidmurodova, Head of the Department on International Economic Relations participated in the event.

Informal discussion, focused on IMF lending policy and its operations, followed the presentation. Students were also interested in career advice and Mr. Bibolov shared his own career experience and urged the students to learn hard and broaden their knowledge.

The participants received copies of IMF publications.

